

AVID Path Training

The AVID Path® series features a rigorous, sequential curriculum that promotes student achievement at the highest levels. You could say it's the pathway to student success. Based on the teacher-developed, classroom-proven AVID program, it offers guides and materials for teachers who want to help students fulfill their potential and get to college.

What participants had to say about the 2009 Path Training:

"Excellent workshop!"

"The best, the most compact workshop ever."

"Great resources to take home!"

"A way to increase rigor without overwhelming my students."

"Great writing ideas."

Who Should Attend:

- AVID teachers interested in enhancing their skills in content areas
- Content area teachers not trained in AVID methodologies

What's Offered: (Registration limited to 25 in each subject area)

- Mathematics
- Science
- English/Language Arts
- History/Social Science
- Critical Reading
- Tutorology Day 1 of 2 (only for AVID teachers)

1 Semester of graduate credit available through University of San Diego for $60.

Why You Should Attend:

- Learn strategies that will increase access to your content area.
- Participate in breakout sessions and receive sample lessons.
- Participants will receive a subject appropriate Path book.

Where to Go:

South San Francisco High
400 B Street
South San Francisco, 94080

When to be There:

Saturday, March 13, 2010
9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Cost:

$25.00/person
Includes materials and food.
P.O. or check payable to:
Contra Costa COE-Region 4 AVID

Payment:

Please mail check or P.O. to:
CCCOE-Region 4 AVID
77 Santa Barbara Road
Pleasant Hill, CA 94523

Register online at <http://register.ed1stop.net>

Registration closes on March 5, 2010. No refunds will be given.

Must be registered to attend. No shows will be charged.

Continental breakfast and lunch will be provided.

Email confirmations will be sent.